

July 1-6, 2016 July 7-12, 2017

The Summa Cum Laude Festival in Vienna is Austria's premier global youth music festival for choirs, bands and orchestras.

The festival is under the auspices of UNESCO and the Austrian Federal President Dr. Heinz Fischer in 2015, the artistic patronage is under the international celebrated conductor Nikolaus Harnoncourt.

The festival is held annually in July in the two most important concert halls of Vienna, the Golden Hall of the Musikverein and the Great Hall of the Konzerthaus, it offers an international environment where a thousand young musicians enjoy intercultural exchanges.

Ensembles may participate either in the Competition or in the Celebration (non-competitive)

Top Professionals from the international jury in the competition teach our Academy program at the University of Music and Performing Arts. Take advantage of the interactive workshops and informative lectures, as well as additional concerts with local audiences, including Vienna's newest Hall „MuTh“, the concert hall of the Vienna Boys' Choir. Other events will be conducted in such famous venues as the St. Stephen's Cathedral and the City Hall in Vienna.

The true focus of the Festival is to create an environment where young musicians from all over the world can interact on an international level and build bridges amongst themselves.
